

HEAD OF HISTORY

Person Specification

We are seeking to appoint a person who:-

- is a well-qualified, enthusiastic and motivated teacher
- is sensitive to the learning needs of all pupils
- is willing to embrace new ideas
- can establish positive professional relationships with pupils and staff
- can instil a love of History in pupils
- has a commitment to pastoral care as a positive support for learning.
- has appropriate knowledge and understanding of current and forthcoming developments in the History curriculum
- can develop strategies for raising standards in History at all Key Stages
- can help colleagues teaching History to develop the range of their teaching approaches
- can develop programmes of study and learning resources which meet the needs of all pupils and which take advantage of learning outside the classroom opportunities within and beyond the local environment
- is willing and able to organise visits to enhance the curriculum
- can implement effective systems to monitor pupil progress
- will celebrate the achievements of pupils in History